

Clark Avenue School
8 Clark Avenue
Chelsea, Massachusetts 02150
617-889-7540

March 25, 2002

To Whom It May Concern:

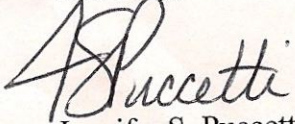

We highly recommend Brian Corey for a teaching position in your district. Mr. Corey is completing his fourth year of employment with the Chelsea Public Schools, assigned as an art teacher to the Clark Avenue School. The Clark Avenue School opened in the fall of 1998 in response to increasing enrollments in the City of Chelsea. We were introduced to Mr. Corey during the summer of 1998, when he assumed the responsibility of building the art department from scratch at the Clark Avenue School.

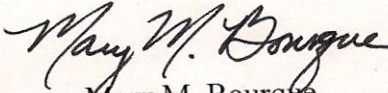

Over the past four years, Mr. Corey has embraced the challenges of teaching art to urban students. He has worked tirelessly to create a learning environment that addresses the needs of students, teachers and parents. Mr. Corey has promoted the love of art throughout the Clark Avenue School community. He has worked with the district-wide art teacher to strengthen the art curriculum that has developed the artistic talents of many students at the Clark Avenue School.

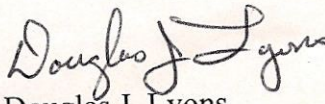

Mr. Corey has organized activities that encourage students to expand and deepen their knowledge in the area of art. He has been instrumental promoting the art work of Clark Avenue School students at the district-wide art show as well as responsible for the planning and implementation of the Clark Avenue School Art Exhibit.

It is without reservation that we recommend Mr. Corey for a teaching position in your district. Please do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of further assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Jennifer S. Puccetti
Principal

Mary M. Bourque
Assistant Principal

Douglas J. Lyons
Assistant Principal